The Sexchart Archive

<http://sexchart.org/>

the sexchart is an ascii representation of everyone you have kissed, either directly or vicariously. it started with just one person - me, in fact. so you've got my name, & all the people i've kissed are connected to my name via dashes (--) & pipes (!). then all the people THOSE people have kissed are linked to them, and so on. it has evolved into an enormous mess of web-like horror, & i couldn't be more proud.
